Online NCCAOM Practice Tests to Go Live on January 25, 2007

Alexandria, VA, January 24, 2007 – All NCCAOM candidates will now have the advantage of taking the official NCCAOM Online Practice Tests via the NCCAOM website starting January 25, 2007.

The NCCAOM is now offering online practice tests for:

- Acupuncture
- Chinese Herbology
- Foundations of Oriental Medicine

This new, innovative technology will allow applicants to take practice tests by logging on to the online practice website (hyperlink provided on NCCAOM's website) whereby subscriptions are available for purchase for each practice test. Each NCCAOM Online Practice Test contains five individual tests, each containing 50 multiple-choice items. Each practice test will follow the NCCAOM examination content outline for each certification examination. Subscription for each of the online practice tests costs $50 and allows unlimited access to the practice test for 90 days.

To purchase a subscription, please go to www.nccaom.org or click below:

PLEASE NOTE:

None of the questions included in the practice tests will appear on any NCCAOM certification examination.

Purchase of these practice tests does not guarantee that a candidate will pass a certification examination or performance at the same level. All items on the practice tests are the property of the NCCAOM and may not be duplicated or copied.
